Washington's birthday was observed here on Monday as a holiday by most persons. The banks, postoffice, public schools, and many business places were closed. The day was beautiful one, sleighing was first class, and bright sunlight prevailed all day, making out door life an enjoyable one. Cutters and sleighs were out in great numbers. It was a day much enjoyed by those who had cutters and horses. Good sleighing, pleasant and agreeable weather and bright sunlight, make a delightful day that can not be excelled.
